

Made in Australia

Qasair Rangehoods a solution for every domestic cooktop in Australia.

Qasair Rangehoods are manufactured in Ringwood 3134 Australia.
And as you will see in this brochure,
they are perfection in metal.

Designed to work over all the domestic cookware available in Australia.

QASAIR rangehoods are the finishing touch to your kitchen.

QASAIR reinvents style and function while maintaining efficiency.

The New Paradigm with the PLASMA UNIT. When the rangehood cannot be ducted out the Plasma reactor will change the molecular structure of all the fumes going through it so, only Oxygen and Carbon Dioxide comes back into the kitchen.

QASAIR has to meet the expectations and the demands of the best designers. In showroom exhibitions where they have to be visual and efficient.

In the best showrooms QASAIR has to be the best and no one else can compete in this area.

Once again QASAIR achieves functionality with performance and is aesthetically pleasing.

QASAIR has a solution to every situation.

Qasair brings colour into the kitchen.
Qasair has taken these coloured stainless steel rangehoods and turned it into a practical form whilst maintaining performance and quality.
